

NEWS RELEASE
22 October 2017

Taiwan food company needs 200 Filipino workers

The Philippine Overseas Employment Administration is now accepting applications for some 200 factory jobs in Taiwan to be deployed under the SHPT or the Special Hiring Program for Taiwan.

The I-Mei Foods Co. Ltd., one of the biggest food companies in Taiwan, is in urgent need of qualified applicants for the positions of 150 factory workers, 10 food analysis inspectors, 7 bakers, 3 staff canteen cooks, 5 programmable logic controller (PCL) operator, 10 general technicians, 5 masons, 5 refrigeration and air-conditioning technicians, and 5 refrigeration and factory compound cleaners.

Applicants must be at least high school or vocational graduate, physically and mentally fit to work, no color blindness, no tattoos, and with good communication in oral and written English.

Qualified applicants should register online at www.eregister.poea.gov.ph and personally submit required documents at the POEA office in Manila or Davao City. The deadline for submission of applications is on November 10, 2017.

/END